IN THE TOILS.

F. J. Cannon Arrested for Criminal Libel.

Yesterday considerable excitement was manifest over the fact that J. K.
Middlemiss, who has figured quite conspicuously in legal circles of late, had sworn out a complaint against Frank J.
Cannon editor of the Standard for criminal libel, on account of the Standard's version of the trial of Middlemiss and others for disturbing the peace, which was heard Friday evening before Justice E. W. McIntyre at Schofield, Emery County. The following is a copy of the ## COMPLAINT.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Territory of Utah,
COUNTY OF WEBER.

To R. W. Cross, Esq., Commissioner of the Supreme Court of said Territory:

John R. Middlemiss, of Ogden City, in the County of Weber, Territory of Utah, on behalf of the people of the Territory of Utah on oath complains that Frank J. Cannon, of Ogden City, in the County of Weber and Territory of Utah, on the 27th day of January A. D. 1889, at Ogden City, in the County of Weber and Territory aforesaid, did print, publish and circulate in the Standard, a newspaper of which he is editor, and which is largely read throughout the Territory of Utah, and adjoining Territories the following wicked and malicious and criminal libel against this affiant, under the pretense of giving the evidence introduced in a trial against this affiant, to-wit: "Muttering" I further showed that Sprunt had posted up notices on the land, and therefore it was his claim; that Middlemiss, acting under W.
K. Williams, had torn the notices down and piled up others, claiming it for Williams, which statements are false, and which were circulated on the 27th day of January, 1889, and which were intended with the balance of the article to injure the character and business of affiant, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made, and which were intended to injure the peace and dignity of the people of the Territory of Utah, and wherefore complainant prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of said Frank J. Cannon, and that he be dealt with according to law.

(Signed,) JOHN R. MIDDLEMISS, Complainant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 28th day of January A. D. 1889.

(Signed,) R. W. CROSS, Commissioner Supreme Court, Territory of Utah.

F. G. Hudson, deputy United States marshal, served the warrant, and Mr.
Cannon appeared before the commissioner. The people were represented by A. Perrin in the absence of the county attorney, and the defendant had present as counsel, L. R. Rogers, J. N.
Kimball, and E. M. Allison. The court read the complaint, when counsel for the defense raised objections. First—That the case was being prosecuted by an attorney for the prosecuting witness and that neither the county attorney nor the deputy United States attorney were present. Objection overruled by the court.

Second—That the complaint did not state an offense under the laws of the Territory; that the court proceedings of any court was matter germane for any paper to publish, and the complaint did not show that the words quoted in the complaint had not been used by witnesses in the trial. The court ruled that the complaint meant that the words reported in the complaint were in effect that the witness had not made the statements complained of, and as a part of a trial that portion which was uttered by the paper and had not been adduced in the testimony, might constitute cause of action.

As the prosecuting witness was not ready to go to trial at the time, trial was set for Friday morning next at 10 o'clock.

The defendant was released on his own recognizance until that time.
